Thursday
Evening.
[2/6/14]

My darlingest Mummy,
I don't know when I've been so really, truly happy as I was this morning when I had a few lines from you.
I most wept I was so glad, and I might have really done it. If I hadn't had an exam right away, but I knew I had to keep cool.
This morning's exam wasn't so very bad and it was shorter than the others, which was a joy. Now, I'll have to fix up my notes to keep and get fresh paper to put in.
To-night we look quite domestic, we are all sewing to get ready for the next few days. Mommy is sewing some blue maribou on a yellow dress and I have been sewing on hooks and eyes and things.

I feel so strange this noon, with my work done for three or four days; I felt sort of lost. But I'm beginning to feel natural again now.

Mommy dear, I shall keep that note just forever and ever, I love it so.
Your Jamie
